Personalized LIVE FLOWERS

101/It's POSSIBLE!

And Avou!

They Will never Died.

They feel, look, and smell real, but they will never die because now they are real yet preserved forever.

The Problem with the floral Industry today

Every industry has a global brand leader:

For Shoes?

For Watches?

For Coffee?

What about flowers. What's the global brand?...

How can one of the world's oldest industries lack a global leader

What unmet needs and challenges exist in the global floral gifting space, and why?

- 1. Dominated by mom-and-pop shops
- 2. Lack of personalization and limited emotional impact
- 3. Missed corporate and promotional opportunities
- 4. Perceived as mere decoration
- 5. Failure to integrate with other industries
- Limited differentiation
- 7. Stagnation in innovation
- 8. Inability to adapt to experiential gifting trends
- 9. No global brand leader
- 10. Lack of a trendsetting brand

Solution

"At Speaking Roses, we've done for the floral industry what was once done for the paper industry. Just as paper became a vehicle for innovation through printing, packaging, and the creation of multiple billion-dollar industries, we've transformed flowers into a medium for personalization and emotional expression, unlocking new market opportunities."

Allowing for an unlimited range of messages and designs. Our products open doors in multiple markets, such as gifts, souvenirs, promotional products, Funeral products, licensing and many more.

Paper Industry Worldwide

(around 351 Billion Dollars)

Magazine Industry Worldwide (around 34 Billion Dollars)

Book Industry Worldwide (around 91.3 Billion Dollars)

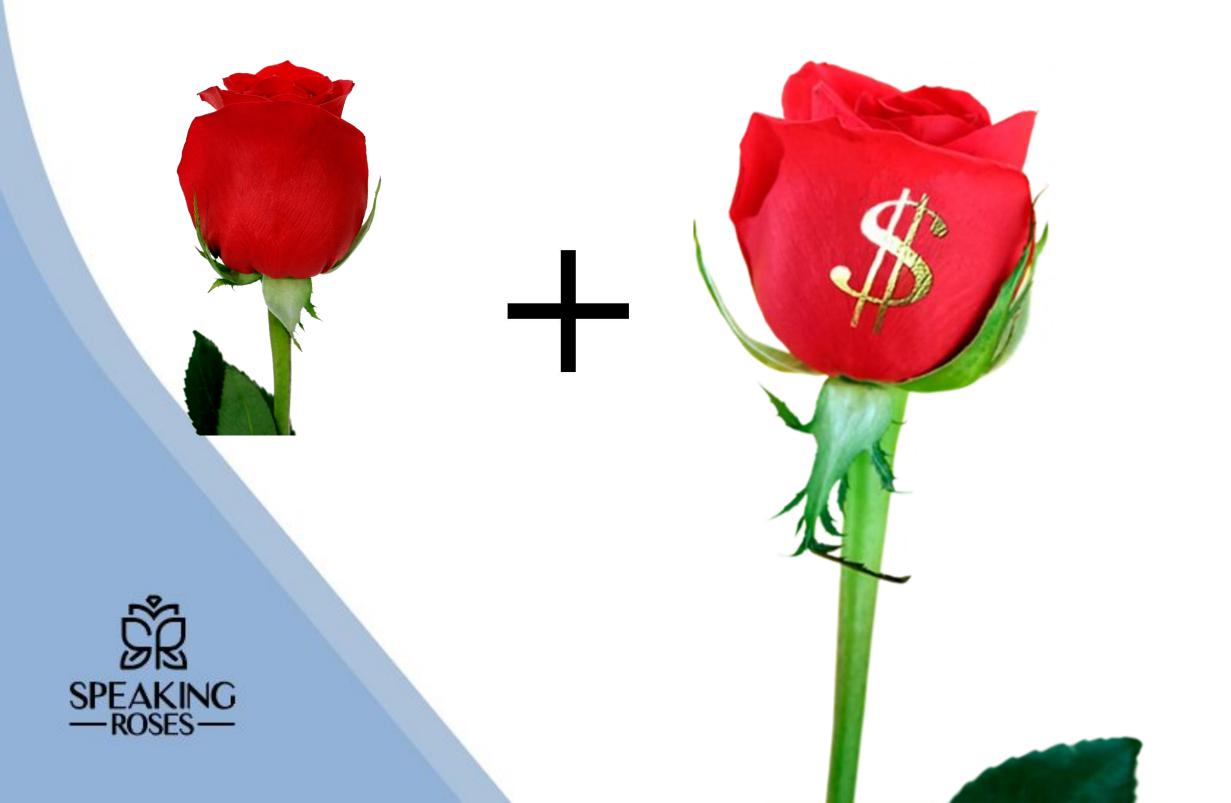

Greeting Card Industry Worldwide (around 18 Billion Dollars)

Market Opportunity

"By using flowers as the vehicle for the message, we've discovered that printing on roses redefines the industry, opening multiple avenues to enter new markets. We've tested and proven that, just like paper, the rose becomes the medium, and the printing becomes the industry itself. This allows us to tap into previously unreachable industries that the traditional floral market has never been able to penetrate."

Which brand instantly comes to mind when you think of the global floral industry?

It doesn't exist!

Similar Competitors - Edible Arrangements Revenue - If they did it with fruits, you can do it with roses!

Estimated Revenue & Valuation

- Edible Arrangements's estimated annual revenue is currently $1.2B per year.
- Edible Arrangements's estimated revenue per employee is $317,800

Market Opportunity

"By using flowers as the vehicle for the message, we've discovered that printing on roses redefines the industry, opening multiple avenues to enter new markets. We've tested and proven that, just like paper, the rose becomes the medium, and the printing becomes the industry itself. This allows us to tap into previously unreachable industries that the traditional floral market has never been able to penetrate."

Market Opportunity - Disruption

"We've sold millions of dollars in fresh flowers, and now the next step is to conquer the world with our 'FRESHLOOK' flowers. These preserved flowers look, feel, and even smell like fresh flowers, but they will last for years, solving the logistics challenges of a perishable product."

By entering segments such as promotional products, corporate gifts, and licensing, Speaking Roses taps into these multi-billion-dollar markets with a disruptive product.
